"THOUGHTS"

"And a good time was had by all!" at the November Quarterly Meeting held at Bakers! It was so good to see so many members in attendance. I'd like to apologize for not getting to speak to each of you personally, or at least getting to say "Hi". This is not intentional, but I seem to get rather excited at these functions and forget what I'm supposed to do. You'll find I'm not a very good politician, yet, but I'll get around to kissing the ladies and babies as time goes on. You men will have to be satisfied with just a hand shake.

As usual, the food was delicious, and as usual the spiked punch bowl won the contest over the unspiked by two to one. Fooled everyone that time, we switched labels on the punch bowls. Just being facetious!

We seem to be moving forward again after the latter transition period. I know to many it seems we move rather slowly, but I think it is much better to move one step forward than to take two steps sideways and then have to back up. We are gaining new members, but our non-renewals are still a thorn in our side. There is no clear cut answer as to the non-renewals. I personally don't think it is a matter of economics. It possibly could be disillusionment caused by not providing these members with what they expect. The only answer to that is for all of us to try harder, if that is possible. If when you receive your notice for renewal, and you feel you do not want to renew for some reason, drop us a line and tell us why. It will help to know what we are doing wrong and we'll certainly try to correct it.

One matter that I would like to dwell on is "DEADLINES". Deadline for reservations, deadlines for orders, and deadlines for Crystal Ball articles or whatever. (Deadline for Crystal Ball articles and advertising has been moved back to the 10th of the month.) I know it is difficult at times, to plan ahead so that you can attend certain functions, and we are all guilty at one time or another of not meeting deadlines. These are very necessary "evils" in that there has to be time to correlate the reservations or whatever with the parties involved, especially in the case of the Annual Convention. It is very difficult to comprise a list of all those attending and getting it to the management at the Shenandoah so they can make their plans, and if names have to be added to the list up to and including start of activities, the management is upset and so are some of the members who have to be turned down. We want to accomodate everyone so please help the Convention Committees so they can make this possible. As Jo Barstow announced at the November Quarterly Meeting she anticipates the largest turnout ever at this years Convention, for reasons that she will announce in the January issue, not only at the banquet but all other activities. She is doing a super job and seems on the verge of accomplishing the impossible, the best Convention ever! We don't want anyone to be left out so please try to observe her deadlines. Seating for the banquet, especially, will again be limited.

Thanksgiving is past, (missed the deadline for my Thanksgiving message in the last Crystal Ball), but hope you all had a happy and safe Thanksgiving and all gave Thanks for the things that have made this world such a wonderful place to live in, each in his own way.

Oops! I almost missed another deadline. This is the last Crystal Ball you will receive until after the Christmas Holidays. May all of your stockings be filled with Cambridge Glass, but much more important during these festive holidays, let's all remember that we are celebrating the "Birth of Christ", He who makes all things possible.

I wish you all a very, very Merry Christmas!

REFLECTOR CANDLEHOLDER

by Phyllis Smith

Sometime in the not too distant past, I have a very distinct memory of someone asking me if I knew if the Caprice Reflector Candleholder was ever made in anything other than Milk Glass. For the life of me, I cannot remember who it was that asked, or even where I was at the time. Did I have another dream about Cambridge glass (yes, I am afraid that I do dream about this glass - sometimes even in color), or did this really happen to me?

Well, no matter, I have spent considerable time going thru everything we have in the way of research material, and I find that the only place this candleholder shows up, is in Bennett's color book, plate 45, row 2, item 3, and it is shown in milk glass.

In our personal research material, I found that in the April, 1941 issue of "Crockery & Glass Journal", page 20, that this candlestick was introduced to the trade as being from "the graceful Caprice line at Cambridge Glass Co." and further described as "a shell-like design in one-stick version which would be splendid for informal table settings". I am sorry that our information is a xerox copy and of such poor quality that it cannot be reproduced here. The little cut-out picture we are attempting to reproduce for you is taken from a xerox copy of a supplemental page added to the 1940's catalog and dated June 1941.

Caprice #73 Reflector Candleholder

Back to the original question, my answer is yes, these beautiful candleholders were produced in something other than milk glass. I would assume it safe to state that they were produced in both crystal and moonlight blue, and could have been produced in any of the other colors being used during the time frame 1941 to the close of the factory.

These are the only three references to this reflector candleholder I have been able to find. If anyone out there has anything else on this, please let us hear from you.

PROJECTS

by Willard Kolb, Chrm.

The Lion is all but extinct! The Eagle will hopefully rise and its preservation will be our prime concern in 1981. The project committee will make every effort to continue these bookend projects so that you, who have invested in the previous two, and those of you who may want to invest in those following will not be disappointed.

Other projects that we are working on at the present time are some small items and very possibly the commissioning of a cup plate by Pairpoint. This being in the final stages. However, keep in mind that production on this item could take as long as two years. This is how long their production is backed up.

The paperweights seem to have caught on lately. Those of you who have ordered these paperweights, please remember that Tom Mosser does these personally in his spare time and delivery may be delayed somewhat. Please bear with us! We stated in the last Crystal Ball that Tom would be willing to use cullet that you send for the background in your paperweight. In talking to him since the article was written, he again indicated that he is willing to do this, but he cautioned us that all colors may not remain the same after they are reintroduced to heat. Moonlight Blue, for instance, may turn out after re-heating to be almost a crystal. The important thing however is that it would be some particle of glass that you want to preserve for sentimental reasons. Don't forget when you send your order to tell what name you would like placed in the paperweight. They must be personalized or Tom will not make them.

Thank you for your cooperation on all projects and we wish you all a VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS.

DEADLINE PERMANENTLY CHANGED TO 10th!

Beginning with the January, 1981 issue of the Crystal Ball, the deadline for all articles, study group reports, advertisements, etc., will be the 10th of the month preceding publication! This means that all information must reach the N.C.C. post office box on or before the 10th of each month. Mail received after the 10th will be held for publication in the following edition unless otherwise requested by you.

"YUKON" DECORATION

by Doris Isaacs

I don't know about you, but the word "Yukon" brings to my mind visions of the far north and snow. The far north and snow immediately bring to mind Santa Claus, and I feel sure Santa must bring to mind for everyone, visions of Christmas. So, as a Christmas present to all of you this month, I want to share with you a Cambridge decoration of which we know very little, but believe was called "Yukon" by the Cambridge Glass Company.

In the August 1935 issue of "China Glass & Lamps", page 12, there appeared a picture very similar to the one we show here in photo #1, of this little Cordial and After-Dinner Set. The photo in "China Glass & Lamps" showed the set in clear glass, minus the frosted decoration. In the accompanying article along with the picture was the following: "Many new items in series decorated with frosted bands, including stemware, fancy items, platters, smokers' articles -- elaborate new candelabra and epergnes -- smart new cordial and after-dinner coffee set, as shown in the illustration, done in crystal and colors."

The after-dinner coffee cup contains our "proof" that the name of this frosted decoration was "Yukon". It contains not only the triangle c trademark on the bottom and a part of the original company paper label, but it also has a factory stock label which bears the name "Yukon". We have never seen this decoration in a catalog, mainly because catalog information between the years 1935 and 1940 just isn't available to us at this time, and of course there is always the possibility that it was not a good seller, and therefore had a very short life. However, we do feel that the article in "China, Glass & Lamps" does date it and lists other items that can undoubtedly be found with this decoration.

Photo #2 gives you a little better view of each item. The frosted or satin finish is on the cup handle and makes a band just below the cup rim. The same band circles the top of the vase cordial and the foot is entirely frosted.

We purchased the cigarette box in photo #3, and the ash tray in photo #4, the same day we purchased the cordial. All three pieces came from a 1977 Auction held at the home of a former Cambridge Glass Co. worker.

These are the only pieces we have seen thus far. If any of you have similar pieces, please share your information with us. "Merry Christmas" to all!

NOVEMBER QUARTERLY MEETING REPORT

by Phyllis Smith

The N.C.C. Quarterly Meeting held Saturday evening, November 1st, was well attended by 78 members from Ohio, Maryland and Missouri. As always, the buffet served us by the management at Baker's Restaurant was exceptionally outstanding. No one should ever go away from one of these meetings hungry!

After the business portion of the meeting was concluded (see Minutes beginning on page 2), the fun began! Our resident Auctioneer Willard Kolb once again conducted one of his famous "Mini-Auctions" and managed to extract $133.50 from those in attendance, all for the Museum Fund, of course! Donations of Cambridge glass were made by: Paul & Jean Carter, Sandy & Dean Jenkins, and Roy & Doris Isaacs, all of Cambridge, OH; Joanne Paul, Newark, OH; Virginia & Dick Houston, Timberlake, OH; Charles Shaw, Yonkers, NY; and Robert Offenbacher, Milwaukee, WI. Coyle & Schuster Antiques, Newark, OH, donated the door prize won by Charles Moorehead; and our President Willard Kolb held the winning ticket for the raffle conducted during the evening by the Cambridge Squares Study Group. It was all a lot of fun, and a great way to add a few extra dollars to our Museum Fund!

Our program for the evening was a study of Nearcut glassware and was conducted by Program & Entertainment Chairman Frank Wollenhaupt, assisted by Lynn Welker. There must have been 200 pieces of Nearcut on display. Unfortunately the lighting in the room was not good, and it made it very difficult to see the patterns as they were being held up and discussed, but they were viewed at closer range both before and after the meeting, to the satisfaction of all present. It would be impossible for this writer to convey via this short article, the information presented to us, but it was a very interesting program, and one well received. The photo's shown here do not begin to tell the story, but perhaps they will help convey to you the magnitude of the display.

The "Show & Tell" portion of the program contained several pieces of Cambridge glass, and as is usual, several pieces that were not Cambridge. Of course the whole idea behind these show and tell sessions, is to identify questionable pieces of glass.

It was announced that our next Quarterly Meeting would be held on Friday evening, February 27th, at the Shenandoah Inn, Old Washington, OH. The All-Cambridge Glass Auction will be held the following day, Saturday, February 28th, beginning at 11 AM. Hope to see you all there!

Shown here (l to r) viewing the Nearcut Glass are: Gene & Marilyn Loveland from Missouri, Doris Isaacs, Ruby Landman, Roy Isaacs and Karen Jones, all from Ohio.

STUDY GROUP #5 - SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA "CALIFORNIA CAMBRIDGE COLLECTORS"

The California Cambridge Collectors held their meeting October 17 in the home of Tony and Betty Regan. There were 13 members present. New officers were elected and they are as follows: Betty Wanser, President; Betty Losch, Vice-President; Joe Svehla, Treasurer; and Joan McDowell, Secretary.

The topic for the program was Early Pressed glass. Several good examples were shown including: a biscuit jar and lid; Wheat Sheaf footed jam jar and lid; green carnival Inverted Strawberry bowl (all three pieces were marked Near Cut). Other items were: baskets; cruet; and a perfume bottle. "Show & Tell" included a 10" Primrose basket with matching #69, 7½" Primrose candlesticks. These were placed under blacklight and the results were lovely, producing a bright green glow. Ron Rockafellow exhibited the "buy of the year". A 12" crown tuscan Nautilus vase, in mint condition, that he purchased for $2, at a swap meet in Durate. Pat Daly shared a carmen Caprice 6" tall footed compote. (Editor's Note: Imperial produced these compote's as well as covered candy's in their ruby color. As far as is known, Cambridge did not produce Caprice in carmen.)

Betty Wanser brought a crystal paperweight which had the Cambridge Glass factory engraved in gold, with the wording "Cambridge Glass Co., October 12, 1922", and on the side edge was engraved "Group #7 Ohio Bankers". Betty also showed an all crystal ivy ball and a 4½" crystal puff box.

Betty Regan shared a recent purchase of an ebony hat cigarette holder and a Mt. Vernon milk glass salt. Ruth Eilenfield brought an impressive 9½" royal blue cornucopia vase with a crystal seashell base, which was gorgeous. We then enjoyed a delicious buffet.

The California Study Group is actively seeking new members. Anyone interested in joining may contact Linda Svehla, c/o P.O. Box 416, Cambridge, OH 43725.

STUDY GROUP #6 - NEW YORK STATE "THE FINGERLAKES"

On Sunday, October 26th, 1980, the Fingerlakes Study Group met at the home of Bob & Marcia Ellis in Pittsford, N.Y. A business meeting was held and plans were made to work on updating prices for the new price guide at our next meeting.

Following the business portion of the meeting, Marcia presented information that she had compiled on Reproductions and Reissues taken from Crystal Balls. This was organized under each Factory involved and listed the items that have been so produced. This was intended to be a refresher for all plus providing us with a handy reference sheet when needed.

Sandwiches and dessert were served. Our next meeting will be held at the home of Shirley and Don Ladouceur on Sunday, November 30th at 3 PM. This will be a work program.

STUDY GROUP #8 - SOUTHERN MICHIGAN
"THE MICHIGAN CAPRICES"

The Michigan Caprices met October 17 for dinner and a meeting at the home of Robert and Betty Dasen, Flushing, Michigan.

Phyllis Hayes passed out handmade calligraphy note paper to the members, made especially for the Michigan Caprices.

A program on Rosepoint was given by the hostess. Rose etchings by other glass companies were shown and compared to the Cambridge Rosepoint. In our area, the Fostoria, Willowmere Design, Etching 333 (1953) has been incorrectly identified and sold for Cambridge Rosepoint.

All members attended the 8th Annual All Depression Era Glass Show & Sale the next day in Livonia, Michigan. Cambridge glass was plentiful at this wonderful show, and all members came away with their special chosen Cambridge pieces.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Frank and Phyllis Hayes. We are looking for new members. Anyone interested call Betty Dasen, (313) 659-3243.
