

Pictured here is a table centre consisting of an unusual Oval Bowl and two—3 light step-up Candelabra. See the inside of this folder for a few choice articles of this distinctive line of Rose Point Glassware.

A magic word—a word to conjour visions!

Brides of Yesterday in hoop skirts! Brides of Today in slender silhouettes! Brides of royal blood, resplendent, glorified, adorned for the altar in bridal veils of rose point lace!

Rose Point lace is made entirely by hand by the peasants of Belgium, requiring infinite skill and patience. Years are sometimes required to complete a single pattern, and many hands have a part in the making. The finest of cotton thread is used and so delicate is the design that magnifying glasses are worn by the workers. It is never washed, as water would destroy its perfect texture. The younger generation of Belgians have neither the patience nor the inclination to perform so tedious a task, so Rose Point lace is becoming increasingly rare.

And now there is another Rose Point luxury for brides, less rare, less costly, but beautiful and distinctive and new—CAMBRIDGE ROSE POINT CRYSTAL!
